Further research of the 'Regis' registers show more family related to the Jerrards noted in the pages above.

There was a family for John d13Jun1760 Wyke Regis burial register noted as “senior” & Catherine d22Sep1763 age 66 (Info from a monumental inscription in graveyard opposite of All Saints church, Wyke Regis) and descendants.

The first child of the family appears to be a Richard bp1721(WR). So I assume the marriage occurred in 1720/21 but I have no record. I am unable to trace John's ancestors with any confidence, however, given the 1st child's baptism date I would have to attribute John's birth prior to 1700. This would leave the possibility that John was the son of Thomas & Grace bp1682, the son of Thomas & Grace Mintern bp1699 or the son of Christopher & Sarah bp1696, or even John bp1673 the son of Anthony although this last possibility is probably not a possibility given the ages involved as you will see by the children I will now list. John & Catherine had the children: Richard bp1721d1721(8 months) Wyke Regis graveyard monumental inscription, John bp1722(MR)d1766 (Info from a monumental inscription in graveyard opposite of All Saints church, Wyke Regis. Inscription with his mother's also stated "John Jerrard her son Obt 28h Novr 1766 At 44 A Dutiful Son Tender Husband Loving Father & a good friend") who married Sarah Pearce m1743; Sarah bp1725(MR), Mary Strong bp1723(MR), Richard Strong bp1726(WR)d1726 (6 weeks), Elizabeth bp1728(WR), Hanah Strong bp1734(WR) and Thomas bp1737(WR). The descendants that I can trace from this family is the family of John & Sarah Pearse. They were married by Licence m22Aug1743. Sarah died 1799 and her 'will' mentions her daughters Mary Ferre (Ferry), Sarah Jerrard, her sons John Jerrard & Michael. The children of John & Sarah were Sarah Pearse bp1744, Mary Pearse bp1744 married William Ferry m1778 (Sarah & Mary were twins), Richard bp1747 d1810 age 63 married Elizabeth Martin m1776 she d1826 age 74, John bp1749d1749, John bp1751, George Strong bp1752d1784 age 32, Michael (Festing?)bp?? married Elizabeth Collier m1784.

Tracing the family of Richard bp1747d1810 & Elizabeth Martin d1826 m1776 the children were: John bp1776d1847 age 70, Richard bp1778 married Elizabeth bp1779 – 1851 census shows him 72 and her 71, Elizabeth bp1780, Lettice bp1785, Michael bp?? d1793, Thomas bp1786 d1723 at sea age 37.

Tracing the family of Michael Festing & Elizabeth Collier the children were: Sarah Collier bp1785 married John Thurman m1805, James bp1788, Rebecca Collier bp1787 married Robert Loaring m1824, Thomas Collier bp1789, Elizabeth Collier bp1791d1874 unmarried in Tiverton, Michael bp1792d1793, Anne bp1793, James Collier bp1795d1862 school master lived in Lychet Minster married Elizabeth they had a son Thomas Collier bp1840d1840, Ann bp1796, Mary Penny bp1797, Mary Strong bp1803.

A family descendent from Thomas bp1702 the son of Thomas & Grace Mintern is traced as follows.

Thomas bp1702d1780 married Patience (Patty) d1769. Thomas by his `will` was known as "elder" and appears by his signature was a butcher. Mentioned in his 'will' are his daughters Patty (Patience) Jerrard, Joan Payne & her husband Rev Samuel Payne d1801 age "63rd year of his age". The children of Thomas & Patience were; Flower (male) bp1732d1742(MR), Thomas bp1733 (younger) married m1757 Sarah Bishop bp1737d1784 age 47, Patience (Patty) bp04Jan1740, Mathew bp1745d22Feb1752, Martha bp1747 married m1779 Henry Thornhill, Joany (Jenney) Flower bp1744 married m1762 Samuel Payne by License – she was a minor her mother Patty Jerrard witness.
